Makeup Exam Rules

Effective from Fall 2023

(1) Midterm Exams:

The makeup exam is allowed during the midterm exam week or the following week. The result counts for 80% of the actual score.

(2) Final Exams:

The makeup exam for final exam can only be scheduled on the Monday of the final exam week, and the score obtained is the actual score.

(3) Applying for Makeup Exams:

Students meeting the following conditions can apply for makeup exams two weeks prior to the exam date:

- Those with expiring visas needing immediate travel must provide a visa page copy for verification.
- Those attending family events (weddings, funerals, or celebrations) in their home country must provide an invitation letter or event evidence.
- Those unable to take the exam(s) due to illness must submit a medical diagnosis certificate from a public hospital.
- Those with official commitments preventing them from taking the exam must submit an official leave request, certified by the relevant department (limited to NCCU units).
- Those unable to change their return flight dates should provide a copy of their flight ticket and its conditions for verification.

~These guidelines will be effective starting from the Fall term of 2023.~
